If you fail to notify us of any such discrepancy within such thirty (30) day period, we will not be liable for any other losses resulting from your failure to give such notice or any loss of interest with respect to activities shown on such periodic statement. If you fail to notify us of any discrepancy within one year of receipt of the periodic statement, you are precluded from asserting such discrepancy against CENTRAL VALLEY BANK. You will be deemed to have received any notification or periodic statement on the earlier of the date you actually received it or five days from the date we sent it to you.

This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with federal law and regulation, and to the extent no such applicable federal law or regulation exists, by the laws of the State of Washington.

12. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, together with any account agreements and account disclosure statements and (where applicable) the Automated Clearing House (ACH) Agreement and/or the Funds Transfer Agreement, are the complete and exclusive statement of the final agreement between you and CENTRAL VALLEY BANK with respect to our internet banking network, and this Agreement supersedes any prior negotiations, representations and agreement between us with respect this network. This Agreement may not be contradicted by evidence of prior, contemporaneous or subsequent oral agreements between us. There are no unwritten oral agreements between us.

13. ASSIGNMENTS

You may not assign this Agreement or any of the rights or duties under this Agreement to any person without our prior written consent. CENTRAL VALLEY BANK may assign this Agreement or subcontract any services to be performed under this Agreement.

CENTRAL VALLEY BANK may amend any part of this Agreement, including any schedule hereto, from time to time after 30 days written notice to you.

19. TERMINATION

CENTRAL VALLEY BANK reserves the right to discontinue the Internet banking network or any of the services described in this Agreement. You or CENTRAL VALLEY BANK may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving written notice to the other party. Notwithstanding such termination, this Agreement shall remain in force and effect as to all transactions that shall have occurred prior to the date of termination.

20. OFAC

The U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) administers economic sanctions and embargo programs that require that assets and transactions involving the interests of target countries, target country nationals, and other specifically identified companies and individuals ("blocked parties") be frozen. All of the programs administered by OFAC involve declarations of national emergency by the President of the United States.

Like other payment mechanisms, the internet banking network is subject to compliance with OFAC regulations. All U.S. citizens and permanent resident aliens, companies located in the U.S., overseas branches of U.S. companies, and, in some cases, overseas subsidiaries of U.S. companies come under OFAC jurisdiction. This means that you need to be aware that you may be held accountable for violations of OFAC sanctions and must understand your compliance obligations.

You must be aware that you are subject to applicable U.S. law when initiating transaction using our Internet banking network. This includes, among other things, that you must not violate OFAC-enforced sanctions, and that you are not acting on behalf of, or transmitting funds to or from, any party subject to such sanctions. You should be aware that you will be held to an obligation to transact only lawful activities under this Agreement. You are strongly encouraged to obtain Specially Designated National (SDN) and other compliance information directly from OFAC. OFAC's Compliance web site <http://www.ofaccompliance.com/>

21. CONFIDENTIALITY

You agree that you will have access to certain confidential information regarding our execution of Entries, the Security Procedures and the services contemplated by this Agreement. You will not disclose any such confidential information to third parties without our written consent.

22. ACH AND WIRE TRANSFERS

This agreement is subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code – Fund Transfers as adopted in the state in which you have your account with us. If you originate a fund transfer for which Fedwire is used and you identify by name and number a beneficiary financial institution, an intermediary financial institution or a beneficiary, we and every receiving or beneficiary financial institution may rely on the identifying number to make payment. We may rely on the number even if it identifies a financial institution, person or account other than the one named. You agree to be bound by automated clearing house association rules. These rules provide, among other things, which payments made to you, or originated by you, are provisional until final settlement is made through a Federal Reserve Bank or payment is otherwise made as provided in Article 4A-403(a) of the Uniform Commercial Code. If we do not receive such payment, we are entitled to a refund from you in the amount credited to your account and the party originating such payment will not be considered to have paid the amount so credited. If we receive a credit to an account you have with us by wire or ACH, we are not required to give you any notice of the payment order or credit.
